

"We Have Come To Share in Christ"

Fourth Grade Parent News: January 7th, 2019

Good Afternoon,

May the Grace of God be and abide with you all in this new year.

Again I say Wow to how fast this week went. Days speed by with all of the great discussion times that we have in class. In most any subject now the kids are asking those "higher order" questions that really cause us to dig into information. It never ceases to amaze me on how much information the kids really want to know. The learning that can take place outside of some of the books through experiences and talk/debate is invaluable to everyday life. I know it is not for everyone but this class love that discussion time. I also want to say thank you for helping make sure class work is kept up, checked, and "legible". In these busy times the kids can tend to want to get through the "homework" too quick and make silly mistakes. I remind them all the time to slow down a little and check over their work, so please keep checking assignment notebooks and work frequently.

God's Blessings,
Mr. Jess Thacker
