

“ANCHORED IN HOPE” Hebrews 6:19

Fourth Grade Parent News: Feb. nd 16th, 2018

Good Afternoon,

*** May the Grace of God that passes all understanding be with you all !!!!

***This past Wednesday we celebrated Ash Wednesday in our Church and School. This is a time where we remember both where we came from and also to where we will return. The greatest blessing of all though, is that Christ came down to wash us clean and take us to join him in heaven when that time comes. Amen to this great sacrifice!!

***Field trip to Symphony—it is my hope that the kids told you about our trip. I'm sure this was the first time for many kid to see a symphony and they did great. We listened to music that told the stories of Black History and the Underground Railroad. We even hear portrayals of Fredrick Douglas and Harriet Tubman, from a couple of speakers. Then we went and did an awesome scavenger hunt in the Art museum prepared by Kati Kleimola (Thanks Kati). The kids did a great job reading and researching and observing some wonderful art. Remember it is FREE to the public so take another trip to see for yourselves.

God's Blessings,
Mr. Thacker
